Adult Forum today at 9:45 a.m. in Fellowship Hall

Carolyn Wahlskog will talk to us about current experiences of LGBTQ+ teens and young adults as they navigate the world. Carolyn is the Community Education and Gender Programming Manager for Youth Outlook.

She is a licensed clinical social worker, and runs the Naperville Transcend Drop In Center, providing Community Education to healthcare providers, educators, faith communities and families. She also supports LGBTQ+ youth experiencing homelessness, is the co-chair of the DuPage Community Network: Professionals Serving LGBTQ+ Youth, a volunteer for the Name Change Mobilization through Transformative Justice Law Project and a community organizer to reduce barriers trans and non-binary folks face while accessing health, education and legal systems.

Women's Bible Study

The Women's Bible Study will meet this Monday, March 12, at 1:00 p.m. in the Library. Please join us for community and lively discussion. Questions? Contact Pat Pape at 630-668-8710 or 630-668-9029.

Faith Circle

Faith Circle is a social, prayerful, service and learning-oriented group of women that meet the second Tuesday of each month in the school year. Our next meeting is March 13, at noon in Fellowship Hall, when our speaker will represent the Northwestern Medicine Mobile Stroke Unit. Please join us! Bring your lunch; drinks and dessert will be provided. Questions? Contact Jean Siegel.

March Collection for PADS

This month we will be collecting small toiletries for PADS. This can include small bottles of shampoo/conditioner, lotion, bath wash, toothbrushes and toothpaste or any of those items you bring home from hotel stays or can find in the travel size section of the drugstore. Look for the basket in the narthex marked "Small Toiletries for PADS."
