ELCA Global Missions, Ken Olson and Stephanie Olson

The ELCA is at work in many places in our community, our state, our county and the world. Ken Olson will share how ELCA Mission Interpreters lift up the Good News of the many ministries of the church. His presentation will have a special focus on the Young Adults in Global Mission (YAGM) program. His daughter Stephanie will tell of her work as the YAGM Country Coordinator for Cambodia.

PADS

PADS for St. Paul is starting up again this month. September 17 and 18, at Trinity Episcopal church is coming up quick. The sign up sheets are up in the narthex. We are always looking to have the food chart filled, but we also have a need for overnight help and morning clean up. If you are up at 6:00 a.m. we can use you for an hour to clean pads, and fold blankets, vacuum floors, and take out trash. Nothing too strenuous, but necessary. Please check the chart and see what you can do to help. Questions, contact Pat Noeske 630-462-7868.

Midweek Bible Study

Pat Pape's popular Mid-Week Bible Study series kicks into action with this Fall's 6-week study entitled Reconcilable Differences: Gifts and Challenges of Relationships. The group meets in the Choir Room on Wednesdays from 10-11:30 am for 6 weeks. Contact Pat at patpape1@sbcglobal.net with questions. No advance registration needed—just show up on Wednesday!

Handbells

The Jubilation Ringers will be back up and ringing! Rehearsals begin on Wednesday, Sept. 19 from 6:30-7:30pm and will follow every week thereafter. We make beautiful music, if I do say so myself, and have a lot of fun. Interested in being part of this noteworthy choir? Give me a call, Michelle Harvey 630-880-0233.
